

CODE OF CONDUCT (Includes Child Safety)

1 INTRODUCTION

This policy affirms the intent of Inspiring Faith, Inspiring Learning. “Catholic Education in the Diocese of Sale is a vital expression of the mission of the Church. Through the partnership of schools with families, parishes, the Catholic Education Office and religious institutes, our schools play a leading role in nurturing the faith of children and youth and developing their intellectual, physical, emotional and social knowledge, skills and attributes” (Most Rev Patrick O’Regan, Bishop of Sale). In performing their duties, it is expected that CEOSale staff will uphold the mission of the Catholic Church by espousing the teachings and values of the Gospels.

The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to provide staff with guidance on the professional standards of behaviour expected of them in performing their duties of employment. These standards exist alongside the standards of behaviour and performance required of employees under their contract of employment, CEOSale policies, industrial agreements and legislation.

2 PURPOSE

The Code of Conduct provides employees with a clear understanding of the personal and professional behaviour expected of them whilst employed at CEOSale. This Code applies to all employees of CEOSale and their interactions with visitors and contractors at the workplace.

3 PRINCIPLES

- 3.1 CEOSale is committed to providing a workplace where expectation of behaviours and performance is commensurate with its values, policies, procedures and guidelines.
- 3.2 CEOSale will comply with relevant legislation and regulations.
- 3.3 CEOSale will ensure all staff are aware of their responsibilities under the Code.
- 3.4 CEOSale will respond appropriately to any breach of this Code in a timely and confidential manner.
- 3.5 CEOSale is committed to child safety and all it entails.

- 3.6 CEO Sale staff has a responsibility of reporting to the Director of Catholic Education when a reasonable belief is formed that a child has been harmed or is at risk of being harmed.

4.2 Child Safety

CEOSale supports the CECV Commitment to Child Safety. Staff are expected to actively contribute to the promotion of child safety at all times.

4.2.1 All CEOSale staff are expected to:

- Protect children from all forms of abuse.
- Adhere to the Child Safety Policy of each school at the time of visiting and to the Child Protection and Safety Policy of CEOSale.
- Be familiar with and abide by the requirements of the Victorian Reportable Conduct Scheme.
- On their first visit annually, CEOSale staff must read, sign off and adhere to each school's Child Safety Code of Conduct.
- Complete CEOSale identified child safety training as detailed below but not limited to:
 - 'Protecting Children and Vulnerable Adults' - CCI online module completed as per CEOSale training schedule
 - 'Protecting Children – Mandatory Reporting and other Obligations' – Department of Education and Training Victoria Online training module. Completed annually during Term 1.
- Understand and comply with all reporting obligations as they relate to mandatory reporting and reporting under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic), including Failure to Protect, Failure to Disclose and Grooming laws.
- Act upon any suspected or disclosed child abuse in accordance with the document titled 'PROTECT – Responding to Suspected Child Abuse: Template for Victorian Schools.
- Ensure as far as practicable that adults are not alone with a child.
- Take into account the diversity of all children, including (but not limited to);
 - the needs of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander children
 - the needs of children with culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds
 - the needs of children with a disability

4.2.2 All CEOSale staff must not:

- Ignore or disregard any suspected or disclosed child abuse
- Develop any 'special' relationships with children that could be seen as favouritism
- Engage in open discussions of a mature or adult nature in the presence of children, for example, personal social activities
- Use inappropriate language in the presence of children
- Express personal views on culture, race or sexuality in the presence of children
- Have contact with a child or their family outside of work, without the knowledge and consent of their CEOSale manager. For example, unauthorised contact could be after-hours tutoring, private instrumental/other lessons or sport coaching. Accidental contact, such as seeing people in the street, would not be seen as unauthorised contact.
- Have any unnecessary, non-work related online contact using business devices, with a child or their family
- Use any personal communication channels/device such as a personal email account for work related purposes
- Exchange personal contact details such as phone number, social networking sites or email addresses.

4.3 Dress code

4.3.1 Employees are required to:

- Dress in professional attire that is neat, tidy, appropriate to the workplace and properly maintained
- Wear appropriate safety apparel where required.

4.3.2 Safety and Protective Clothing

Where safety and protective clothing is provided, these items must be clean and neatly pressed at all times. All provided clothing is required to be returned on ceasing employment.

4.3.3 Prohibited Clothing / Appearance

Employees are not to wear any clothing, jewellery, or tattoo that conveys a negative statement toward a race, gender, sexual orientation, age, religion, disability, or is otherwise considered harassing or offensive.

4.4 Alcohol and drugs

CEOSale recognises alcohol or other drug abuse can impair short-term or long-term work performance and is an occupational health and safety risk.

CEOSale is committed to creating and maintaining a safe, healthy and productive workplace for all employees, visitors and contractors. CEOSale does not tolerate attending work under the influence of illicit drugs or alcohol.

- 4.4.1 Employees must not attend work or drive CEOSale vehicles whilst under the influence of illicit drugs.
- 4.4.2 Illicit drugs shall not be consumed whilst in the Sion House precinct, other work related business premises or in work vehicles.
- 4.4.3 It is understood that employees may take prescription drugs for legitimate medical reasons. If these drugs are likely to affect performance or behaviour, the relevant manager/deputy director must be notified.
- 4.4.4 The responsible consumption of alcohol will be permitted in certain proscribed circumstances (which have the approval of the Director) for employees, Diocesan staff, visitors and contractors, over the age of 18.
 - On these exceptional occasions the consumption of alcohol by employees, Diocesan staff, visitors and contractors' legal limits must be observed.

4.5 Smoke free workplace

CEOSale is a smoke free workplace. Smoking is not permitted in Sion House buildings and grounds or CEOSale vehicles.

4.6 Privacy and Confidentiality of information

Employees are required to respect others' rights to privacy and must maintain the integrity, confidentiality and privacy of any information provided to them in the course of employment. All employees must:

- 4.6.1 Not disclose any confidential information outside of the legitimate performance of their duties
- 4.6.2 Not misuse official information for personal or commercial gain
- 4.6.3 Respect the confidentiality and privacy of all information
- 4.6.4 Ensure the secure storage of sensitive or confidential information.

4.7 Fraudulent and corrupt behaviour

Employees must act responsibly when using CEOSale information, funds, equipment and facilities. Employees must:

- 4.7.1 Not engage in fraud or corruption
- 4.7.2 Report any fraudulent or corrupt behaviour to the relevant Executive member of their Staff Group
- 4.7.3 Report any breaches of the Code of Conduct to the relevant Executive member of their Staff Group

4.8 Conflict of interest

Employees must avoid situations that give rise to a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest. Where such a situation arises employees must:

- 4.8.1 Disclose the conflict of interest to the relevant Executive member of their Staff Group
- 4.8.2 Refrain from taking part in any further conduct, discussion or decision making that might be associated with the matter.

4.9 Acceptable use of Information Communications and Technology

All use of Information, Communications and Technology (ICT) resources must be legal, ethical and consistent with the vision, mission and values of CEOSale. Staff are responsible for exercising good judgement regarding the appropriate use of CEOSale ICT resources and must act in accordance with CEOSale policies and relevant legislation.

4.10 Intellectual property and security

All intellectual property developed by employees during their employment will remain the property of CEOSale. Employees that have access to confidential information, data, or other related property in order to perform their duties must protect this information and only use it in the interests of CEOSale, schools, staff and students.

5 BREACHES OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

- 5.1 An employee who, in good faith, raises a concern or discloses an alleged breach will not be disadvantaged.
- 5.2 If any employee has a genuine concern about the conduct of another employee it is important their concern is raised with the relevant Executive member of their Staff Group.
- 5.3 If an employee makes an intentionally false or malicious claim, they may be found in breach of the Code.
- 5.4 All alleged breaches of the Code will be investigated in accordance with Clause 13 – Managing Employee Concerns of the Victorian Catholic Education Multi Enterprise Agreement 2013 (VCMEA).
- 5.5 Any employee in breach of this policy may be subject to disciplinary action, ranging from a verbal warning through to the termination of employment for serious breaches.

6 EXPECTED OUTCOME

- 6.1 Staff conduct is aligned to CEOSale's values, policies and procedures.
- 6.2 CEOSale delivers outcomes that are best practice because standards are clear and guided by sound ethics.
- 6.3 All breaches are managed in accordance with relevant legislation.
