

Safeguarding Children and Young People - Code of Conduct

Mary MacKillop Primary School
July 2016

*“Never see a need without doing something about it”
(Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop, 1871)*

Our school is inspired by the charisms of St Mary of the Cross MacKillop, Australia’s first Saint and co-founder of the Sisters of St Joseph whose life was lived with great faith in God, whom she never doubted. Mary displayed courage and strength to stand up for what she believed was right and fair and never saw a need without doing something about it.

At Mary MacKillop Primary School we are inspired by Jesus to love God. With Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop as our model we act with compassion and justice, show respect and forgiveness, reaching out to bring hope to others.

As a Catholic school we are a community that grows and develops by learning together. We embrace challenge, build resilience and celebrate success.

At Mary MacKillop Primary School our vision is that:

- The charism of Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop is alive in our School
- People work collaboratively
- Relationships are trusting and supportive
- Our School community is inclusive of all
- We are empowered, engaged and confident learners who think reflect, make connections and take action.

Our School values of; Be Courageous, Be Compassionate, Be a Problem Solver, Be Respectful, Be Responsible emanate from the story of Mary’s life.
