WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT THE Certificate of Religious Education (NSW) 2011

DATES AND UNITS

OVERVIEW

The Certificate of Religious Education (NSW) is an initiative of the NSW Directors of Catholic Education and Religious Education. This course is offered especially for teachers who have not completed a formal post secondary course in RE and for those hoping to update their knowledge. The Certificate of Religious Education (NSW) course is recognised by the Australian Catholic University as replacing the bridging courses required for Admission into Graduate studies in Religious Education.

The course must be completed within two years of commencement unless the written permission of the Course Director is given.

Successful completion of the 8 units gives you Accreditation to Teach RE in a Catholic School.

Part A and Part B of each unit also carry 3.5 hours towards Accreditation to Teach in a Catholic School (Category C). (7 hours per day)
